Comments from the Floor on Agenda items or any other items.

Doug Larson, N53W34257 Road Q, stated he wanted to talk about the Tearney Bay channel and wanted to thank Trustee Scully for working with him to keep with the channel open with the three trees that have fallen in the channel the last 30 days.

Brian Demaster, N53W34202 Road Q, stated he received a letter regarding the removal of a tree that fell from his property and stated the letter never gave a reasonable amount of time for removal.

Patty Napgezek, W348N6079 California Avenue, stated she didn't think the installation of stop signs on W. Lake Drive by Foolery's is the right answer; felt there would be more accidents if they were installed.

Tommie Coppinger, N52W35147 W. Lake Drive, stated that she is in favor of the stop signs being installed on W. Lake Drive and it would help to prevent speeding in the area.

Henry Krier, N55W34685 Road E, stated it has taken years to get the Hideaway under control and now with this new policy on Okauchee Music Guidelines it is going to change that, and the decibel level is too high as is being proposed.

Trustee Mullett used his phone to read the decibel level of the talking in the meeting and the decibel level was either higher or at the level that is being proposed for music.
